Tietbohl Family History

by

Fred Tietbohl III

Note: The writer of this history lived in West Germany 1968 - 1972. A spare time project was to do family name research. The effort revealed only six German Tietbohls with telephone numbers in 1970. Of these six three agreed to meet. Two are referenced herein. These German Tietbohls were not proven relatives but "namesvetters" or name cousins. The Tietbohl family readers of this work should be able to connect back to Joachim and Wilhelmina using the information presented. The original 1996 work has been updated and reprinted as a new 2006 version for distribution by PDF format to all Internet users. From this a hard copy can be printed as desired.

The Mae Tietbohl Tree History First Generation

This chapter is a reproduction of the data about the first generation immigrant children of Joachim Tietböhl. It is taken from the TREE History of Auchmuty, Tietböhl, and Foelschaw Families, dated May 19, 1967, supplemented by an update March 7, 1979. It was compiled by Anna Amanda Auchmuty Mae Tietbohl Guinter. The information below comes from the the pages of her tree history concerning the immigrant Tietbohl's. The tree history forms the foundation for this family history. Without her pioneering work this effort could not have been done. It is referenced throughout this work.

The basic information above was compared with records in United States Federal Census data, Social Security Death Indexes, newspaper articles and other sources referenced in this family history. Additional information about each of the original seven children and their descendants were added as found in source documents. The final result is presented in a standard Genealogical Report format with supplemental information and a complete index of names.

Origin of the name Tietböhl

The name Tietböhlen originated in Sweden in the 17th century when King Gustavus Adolphus came south from Sweden across the Baltic Sea to Pomerania. During the Thirty Year's War some of his soldiers were of this name. After the Swedish king fell in the battle of 1632, these "böhlens<sup>1*</sup>" remained along the Baltic Sea from Lubeck on the west to Stettin on the river Oder to the east. Through the long years this long name was improved to Tietböhl.<sup>2</sup> Pomerania, or Pommern as it was called in Germany, was a Prussian province in northern Germany bordering on the Baltic Sea. It was surrounded by Mecklenburg-Schwerin on the West, Brandenburg on the South, and West Prussia on the East. It had a land area of 11, 654 square miles, roughly the size of Delaware and Maryland combined. The Oder River divided the country into two parts, Hither Pomerania (Vorpommern), the area west of the Oder and Farther Pomerania (Hinterpommern), the area to the east. Stettin, a port city 40 miles inland on the Oder, was the capital of Pomerania. The province was further divided into about 30 administrative districts or counties (Kreise; Kr.).

The Tietböhl ancestors were mostly rural people, farmers cattleman, blacksmiths and the like.<sup>2</sup>One exception was Dr. Knut Friedrich Tietböhl who was reported to be honored by the Prussian royal house in 1689 for his important work with the epidemic diseases of scurvy and pestilence.<sup>3</sup>

Part of Pomerania was annexed to Prussia in 1720 by King Frederick William I father of Frederick the Great and then in 1815 all of Pomerania became part of Prussia when the old Swedish territory was annexed.<sup>4</sup> By the mid 1800's the agricultural lands were taken by princes, dukes and other nobility leaving the farmers in poverty and servitude. Failing farms forced rural populations into the cities where children were reared under unspeakable living conditions.<sup>5</sup> King William I was also building his army by forced conscription notably for the Franco Prussian War of 1870 -1871 and after.<sup>6</sup>

Word spread in Germany about peaceful living and good jobs to be had for the asking in America. Ship lines spread the word by holding meetings and distributing posters advertising transit out to a better life. Nothing was said about the harsh condition aboard immigrant ships where passengers were crowded like cattle below deck in steerage class. Cheap fares but a slow 2 week voyage awaited the immigrants. Deaths were not unusual during these voyages and were routinely recorded on the ship's passenger lists.

Today all that is left of Pommern is a German province called Mecklenburg-Vorpommern in which the Kreis (County) of Demmin is located.

Mein lieber Frederick - so sprechen sich doch Amerikaner schulterklopfend an, wenn sie einigermaßen nachbarschaftlich befreundet sind. Ich habe Freunde in Los Angeles, daher weiss ich dies. Ich bin gar nicht erstaunt, von einem Angehörigen meines Namens zu hören. Du gehörst sicherlich der jüngsten Generation an, hast das Leben vor Dir, und es freut mich, dass Du Dich auch noch für die Vergangenheit interessierst. Ich (72) auf absteigendem Ast, verwitwet und alleinstehend, betrachte die Welt durch eine andere Brille. Mit dem zweiten Krieg hatte ich nicht zu tun. Ein gütiges Geschick hat mich vor allem bewahrt - dank meiner lieben, verstorbenen Frau! Aber nun zu Dir und Deinen Vorstellungen! Es gab auch hierohne sich zu identifizieren! - in der Nazizeit eine Art Ahnenforschung. Eines Tages - um 1937 - kam ein Namensvetter zu mir - er stammte aus Pommern, wozu auch Demmin gehört. Seine lange Liste begann mit Tiedtböhlen der Name wurde im Laufe der Jahrhundert verfeinert auf Tietböhl. Dieser Ursprung ist schwedisch. Schweden war im 17. Jahrhundert Grossmacht und besass und beherrschte ganz Pommern. 1634 kamen nun diese "Böhlens" als Landsknechte mit ihrem König Gustav Adolf herüber, um im 30 Jährigen Krieg Lorbeeren zu ernten. Es war aber eine grosse Pleite, denn mit Wallensteins Sieg war auch Schwedens Vormacht auf diesem Boden erledigt. Ja, und diese vielen Landsknechte wollten ja weiterleben und blieben nun auf dieser Seite hängen. Pommern, Mecklenburg bis zur Oder Stettin, wurden ihre neue Heimat. Dieser Namensvetter brachte mir eine ziemlich gebaute Skala meiner Vorfahren, die auch dort ansässig wurden, von wo Dein Urgrossvater seine grosse Reise antrat. Ich kenne Demmin (am Cumerower See) ziemlich genau. Mit dem Fernglass kann man meine Heimatstadt Malchin (Mecklenbg.) auf der anderen Seite ausmachen. Weitere Namensvetter kann man heute noch in Stettin, Wismar etc. (DDR) ermitteln. Die Landschaft Deiner Vorfahren ist einmalig schön, allerdings alles DDR. Solltest Du Gelegenheit zu einer Inspektion haben, nutze sie nur! Es sollte mich freuen, wenn ich Dir etwas gedient habe. Andererseits darfst Du mich gern, sofern Dein Weg über Hamburg führt, mich hier besuchen. Dein Brief hat mich erfreut, und ich wünsche Dir fernerhin einen guten Lebensablauf. Im übrigen stehe ich Dir gern zur Verfügung. Mit freundlichen Grüssen.

ENGLISH TRANSLATION

3 March 1970

Dear Frederick:

I talk to you as American's talk to each other in neighborly friendship. I have friends in Los Angeles, that's how I know. I'm not surprised to hear from someone who has the same surname as I. You probably belong to the youngest generation having your whole life in front of you and it is nice to know that you are still interested in past history. I am 72 years old on a weak branch of the family tree, ready to pass on. I am a widower standing alone looking at the world with a different point of view through my glasses.

With the World War II I had nothing to do, a gift of God had me safe from being a soldier and thanks to my lovely departed wife. Now back to you and your viewpoint.

There have been some cases where you were able to search and find out who your relations are. One day back in 1937 a man came with the same name from Pommern. The town of Demmin also belonged to his ancestors. His long list of relatives started out with Tiedtbohlen. This name through the generation of years has been made better to Tietbohl. The name originated in Sweden back in the 17th century. In those days Sweden was a powerful country and was in possession and occupied all of Pommern. In 1634 King Gustav Adolf came with these "bohlens" to our thirty years war to earn laurels. But it was a big disappointment because of Wallensteins seige. Then was Sweden's power torn down to the ground. But there were many of those soldiers who wanted to live and stay over on Pommern, Mecklenberg and up the river Oder to Stettin which became their new home.

This particular man who came to me was no relation but was a name sake. He brought to me a good accurate scale chart of my relatives who lived there. I know the town of Demmin on the Cumerower Sea very well. With a pair of binoculars I can see my own home town in Mecklenberg very well. The area of your great-grandfather is exceptionally nice but it is in the East Zone. More namesakes can be contacted in Stettin and Wismar in the East Zone. If you ever have a chance to visit over there I would recommend you take advantage of it.

I would appreciate it if all I have told you is suitable for your use. Other than that if you ever get away to Hamburg don't hesitate to stop and see me. Your letter has made me very happy and I wish you far away not knowing me a very pleasant, long life. I am very willing to assist you in any matter.

(Letter from Johannes Tietbohl in English)

The German dialect spoken by Joachim Tietbohl's family in Pomerania was called Plattdeutsch, the low German of the northern glacial coastal region. To show the difference between this dialect and the language used by Martin Luther, a few words from the Lord's Prayer are given below: First in English (E), then in German (G), and finally in Plattdeutsch (PD). Note the great reliance on using umlauts in the last example:

(E). Give us this day our daily bread.

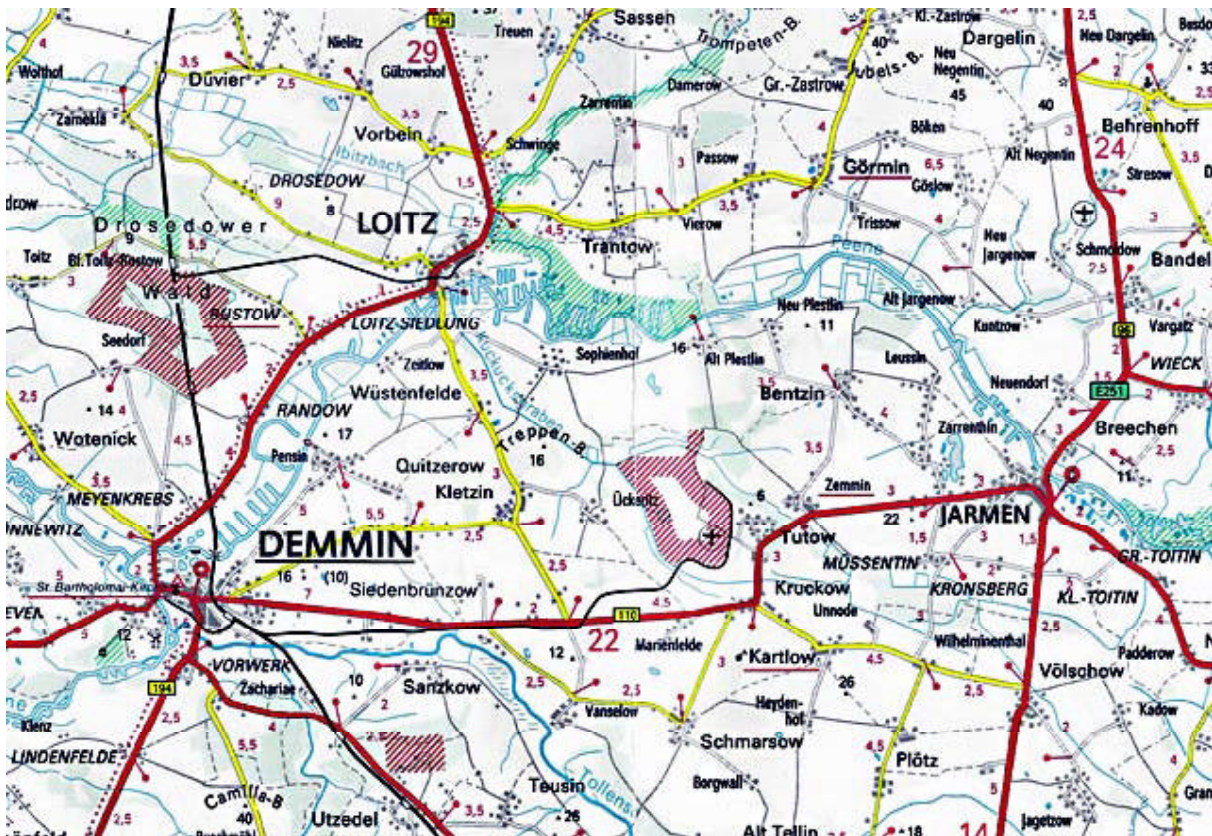

(G). Unser täglich Brot gib uns heute.

(PD. Ose dääglich Bröod giff uns Hüt.

Ref: Die Pommerschen Leute. July 1982, p. 5.

In this larger scale map, the distance from Demmin to Schmarsow ( the place of son Charles and Frederica is a little south of east at about seven and a half miles (12 Km.) These places are all in the county or Kreis of Demmin.

When the Silesia left the Port of Hamburg the outgoing passenger list shows the family under lines 218 Joachim, 219 Emilie and 220 August. The name of their place of origin is obscure but appears to be __ hen __ dow or possi bly __ hen __ kow: Family tradition says it is in the Kreis (County) of Demmin. There is also a small town in Pomerania (Prussia) of the same name.

There is a record of Joachim's oldest son Charles (Johann Carl Friedrich) marrying Friederika Johanne Sohphia Huhr in the records of Schmarsow near the town of Demmin. They came to Williamsport, PA in 1884. This helps tie the family to the Demmin area as place of origin.

Arrival New York, Castle Gardens:

This ship docked at the Port of New York on October 10, 1881. The full passenger complement was 926, all in steerage. Steerage being basically equivalent to a floating cattle car with a single fare about $10. The Tietböhls were all listed as "farmers from Prussia."

This is the source document for the arrival of Joachim Age 46 sic, Emilie (Amelia) age 19 and August Tietböhl age 16 in the Port of New York on October 10, 1881 . Interestingly, when the family left Hamburg, Germany Emilie was listed on the ship's papers as female. However the New York documents show her as a male. It was well known in Germany by 1881 that immigrants who were old and sick rather than young and strong would be sent back to Germany on the next ship. Young girls were disguised as boys in an attempt to avoid molestation and ages were exaggerated as well. Note lines 219, 220 and 221 for Joachi m, Emilie (Amelia) and Aug. (August) Tietböhl. They were Farmers from Prussia .

Castle Garden/Castle Clinton

After processing through Castle Garden/Castle Clinton, the three immigrants settled in Williamsport, PA. For many years there was a steady stream of German settlers into Pennsylvania. Settlements got started between the Susquehanna and Delaware Rivers around fast-growing Philadelphia. As time passed, the newcomers moved west and north. Pennsylvania was the "promised land" due to liberal terms for land purchase, religious tolerance, existing German settlements, a countryside that looked a lot like Germany and a favorable economy. Arrival in America caused dropping the umlaut from the letter ö and the name became Tietbohl.

(Artists drawing of the Castle Garden Reception Center as it was in the 1800's)

..Before 1855, there was no immigrant processing center. The shipping company presented a passenger list to the Collector of Customs, and the immigrants made whatever Customs declaration was necessary and went on their way.

..From August 1, 1855 through April 18, 1890 they came through Castle Garden (also known as Castle Clinton). The State of New York opened the very first examining and processing center for immigrants on an island off the southwest tip of Manhattan (Castle Garden). Immigration remained purely an affair of State, not federal, government until 1882. The court decision affirming Congressional supremacy over immigration (under the commerce clause) came down in 1875. But Congress did not act until passing the Immigration Act of 1882, which authorized the Treasury Secretary to contract with the states for enforcement of that law.

Castle Garden In-Processing

"All being ready, the emigrants proceed in a body up the corridor into the interior of the building, their boxes and baggage being removed to the luggage warehouses, and here they range themselves in order on the seats. In front of them, and in the centre of the building, which is lit by a glass dome, stand a staff of some dozen gentlemen, all busily engaged in making arrangements for facilitating the movements and promoting the settlement of the newly-arrived emigrants. Each emigrant, man, woman and child, passes up in rotation to the Bureau, and gives to the registrar his or her name and destination, as a check upon the return of the Captain of the vessel, who gives the name, place of birth, age and occupation. One of the leading officers connected with the Bureau of Information then mounts a rostrum, and addressing the assembled emigrants, tells them that such as are not otherwise provided for, or prepared to pay for their accommodation, can find shelter under the roof of that building; that advice and information of the best and most reliable kind can be had relative to tickets for railway and steamer to take them East, West, North or South; as to the best means of obtaining employment, for which a register is kept in the Intelligence Department of the Institution; also as to the best and most expeditious routes to take, with facilities for corresponding with friends, and of changing money at the Bureau of Exchange. The petition of August Tietbohl a native of Germany respectfully sheweth: That he arrived in the port of New York in the year 1881 and that at the time of his arrival he was under eighteen years of age; that he has continued to reside in the United States since that period; that for three years previous to his arrival at full age it was and still is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and renouncing forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to William Emperor of Germany of whom he was at that time a subject; that your petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and one year in the State of Pennsylvania, last past, immediately preceding this his application to become a citizen of the United States; that he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in his own or any other country. Prothonotary.

I, August Tietbohl do swear that the contents of my petition are true, that I will support the constitution of the United States, and I now renounce and relinquish any title or order of nobility to which I am now or hereafter may be entitled, and I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to William Emperor of Germany of whom I was before a subject.

Sworn in open Court this Eighth day of December A. D. 18 86
Daniel Steck

This Minor's petition taken by August W. Tietbohl confirms several things about his immigration status. First it states that he came in to this country in the year 1881 as shown on the ship's passenger manifests and at least one US Census. Secondly it confirms that he was under the age of 18 on arrival. It is witnessed by his older brother William Tietbohl who immigrated earlier in 1873. August renounced the authority of William Emperor of Germany on December 8th, 1886, to become a citizen of this country.

Day and Night Restaurant.

A landmark business in Williamsport, Pennsylvania was the Day and Night Restaurant, 318 Market St. It was Established by Augustus Wilhelm Tietbohl known to all as A.W. The restaurant opened it's doors 29 March 1915 and closed 1 July 1968. Most of the son's of AW were involved in managing and operating the business at one time or another. The restaurant was known for its varied fair and pastries especially the home made cinammon rolls. It was a place where one could drop in for a cup of good coffee and a pastry or a complete meal.... Day and Night. A menu from the 1930's is included in this chapter as well as a scaled down recipie of the original cinammon rolls for which the Day and Night was famous.

Historic Tietbohl Building Proves Sturdy Relic of Mid-19th Century

Everything was going well with the demolition until the wrecking crane strained a muscle. During the short work stoppage members of the wrecking crew and a few old-timers discussed the old Tietbohl Building.

The Tietbohl and Keystone buildings, on the corner of Market and Third Streets, are being razed to make way for a proposed two-story branch of Commonwealth Bank and Trust Company.

Spectators argued back and forth as to the age of the building and which end was oldest. Workmen said they thought the structure was a series of buildings, one added to another.

Building Centenarian

Ralph H. Tietbohl, of 433 Percy Street, South Williamsport, said the building was more than a century old. Mr. Tietbohl has an early picture of the building with a railing around it. He said the mayor stood inside the railing while sending troops off to the Civil War.

*The demolition crew, employees of Simon Wrecking Company, Inc., said they were surprised at the strength and design of the building's internal support structures. "The mortar between the bricks is like talcum," said one crewman, "but we had to do some heavy haulin' to pull out the big support beams."

The major support beams were 12x12-inch wood, with little evidence of dry rot or other damage. Workmen said they were impressed when they found the beams came together in a fitted ball-and-socket type joint rather than being spliced externally.

Noted Metal Stars

They also noted metal stars on the outside walls. A three-quarter-inch steel rod passed through the center of the star, through the wall, and into the support beams inside to give the structure added strength. Some said the stars were antiques in their own right, worth as much as $25.

Until Dec. 31, when tenants were asked to relocate, the building housed four businesses and 17 apartments totaling 55 rooms. Many rooms still boasted shining hardwood floors. Under the fiberboard false ceiling in what was formerly the "Learn to Fly" center at 11 East Third Street, were old-fashioned floral design stamped tin ceiling plates.

Many antique fixtures were still in use until the buildings were vacated. Workmen salvaged two marble and one copper sink rather than see them destroyed.

Several upstairs rooms contained bits and pieces left by former occupants. In one room, a dusty bird cage rested on a crumbling dresser. In another, a pair of baby shoes sat neatly on a windowsill. In a third, an open ring box lay half hidden in a corner under layers of different patterned, cracking wallpaper.

The wrecking company's crane bit a hole in the roof of one section of the building revealing an attic with a linoleum floor, a bed with coverlet neatly in place, and, directly under the machine's bite mark, a furled 48-star American flag.

Demolition should take a week to 10 days to complete. After that, the remains of the landmark structure will be hauled away and dumped in a private disposal area.

Tietbohl Family History

The Day and Night Restaurant had menus that were printed on one sheet of paper then folded so as to make a front cover, two inside pages and a back cover. They were printed about once a week or so and designed to be taken home by the customers as a good advertisement for the business. The following pages give an example of the menu fare and the prices which seem ridiculously low in this day and age. Can you imagine a large sirloin steak for 60cents? The time of this menu was in the early to mid 1930's.

Cinnamon Rolls. This is the recipe for the Cinnamon Rolls made in the restaurant throughout its time in Williamsport, PA. In the early 1930's they sold for 5 cents apiece. It was handwritten about 1955 and can be duplicated with these corrections. Substitute three pkg of dry yeast for 2 cakes of yeast. This will make two 9 X 18 inch pans. When you come to the part for the topping it should read as follows:

- 1 lb. of brown sugar.
- 1/2 lb. Butter or margarine.
- 2 cups of water.

Cinnamon Rolls

2 cups scalded milk
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons sugar
 2 yeast cakes softened in
 1/2 cup warm water
 2 tablespoons shortening
 6 cups flour (Bread) enough to make a smooth dough.
 When half of flour has been added, add 3 beaten eggs.
 then rest of flour.

Shape in roll and put in dish big enough to allow to double in bulk. Grease top.
 after raising punch down and turn grease top let rise again.
 To make

Take to table and roll in oblong shape 1/4 in thick.
 cover with melted butter
 then sugar then cinnamon.
 Roll it up then cut in 2 inch pieces put cupside down in pan. Set in warm place to rise again.
 Bake in hot oven 20 to 25 minutes.

This is the thing I want you to remember for there are few if any know how this is done. I worked it out from many readings of recipes.

For the amount of rolls
1 lb. Brown sugar
1/2 lb. Butter -
1 qt. water.

Put sugar in kettle add water put on fire add butter stir until butter is melted let boil 2 to 3 minutes take off stove and set aside until rolls are ready for pan (cover bottom of pan with paper)

Four Generations Now Boss
Day And Night Restaurant

A. W. Tietbohl, founder and general manager of the Day and Night restaurant, became a great-grandfather early yesterday morning when the wife of his grandson, Mrs. Frederick John Tietbohl, Jr. gave birth to a son who has been named Frederick John III. The birth of the baby marked the fourth generation of the family. The baby's father, grandfather and great-grandfather are all actively engaged in the restaurant.

Notes for Joachim Tietbohl

The basic source for this report comes from the family notes and oral tradition handed down from Joachim's descendants and recorded by Anna Amanada Auchmuty Mae Tietbohl Guinter. This is in the form of a "Tree History of Auchmuty, Tietbohl, Foelschaw/Voelschow Families," dated May 19, 1967. This history received only limited distribution within the Tietbohl family and is of course unpublished. This source was relied on to establish the link between Joachim and his children. In this tree history, the names of Joachim's seven children were identified as well as the order of their birth. From then on available census reports, death indexes, newspaper articles and other sources noted in this report were used. In a number of cases the children's vital information was updated as a result of census data.

The use of federal census records from 1880 forward is hampered by the census taker's problems with spelling the name. Then those who indexed the census results also added to the problem with their own interpretation of the census taker's effort. Wide variations in spelling occurred: Sietbohl, Trebohl, Tietbohl, Tiatbohl, Tietbhl, Tietbolih often on the same page and within a family listing. It became necessary to use the soundex spelling and do extensive double checking to be sure that a different family was not mixing in with the Joachim's descendants. Joachim's descendants only appear in the United States Federal Census for 1880 - 1930. The 1890 Federal Census is not available as it was destroyed by fire. The 1930 Federal Census is the latest one released by the government.

The propensity for the early Tietbohl's to name their male children with the same names of Albert, Augustus, Charles, and Frederick tends to create confusion as well among the individual families.

The 1900 Census is used as a baseline for birth and immigration information on all of Joachim's children.

The 1900 census for PA, Lycoming Co, S. Williamsport, 2nd Ward, ED 74, Sheet 13 shows the only census reference to JOACHIM ever found. Here he is listed with his daughter Rickie (Frederica) and her husband Fred Piel. Joachim is identified with the misspelled name of Tiebhle, Joseph as father-in-law, born May 1815, age 85, widowed, immigrated 1881, reads and writes English but does not speak it, and 18 years in the USA. At that time he was living at 253 West Mountain Ave, So. Williamsport, Pa.

The Gazette & Bulletin of Williamsport, PA of 27 April 1901, p. 3, reported: "Joachim Tietbohl died Wednesday afternoon at the home of his daughter Mrs. Fred Piel, in South Williamsport. He was aged nearly 86 years. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Wildwood cemetery."

The same newspaper of 29 April 1901, p. 5, reported: "The funeral of the late Joachim Tietbohl occurred from the home of his daughter Mrs. Fred Piel, in South Williamsport, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment was made in Wildwood Cemetery."

Joachim's name appears one last time in the records of Wildwood Cemetery, Williamsport, Pennsylvania where his burial plot is identified as Lot 519, Section "A" west, with single stone marker.

Generation No. 1

1. JOACHIM<sup>1</sup> TIETBOHL was born 13 May 1815 in Demmin, Pomerania, Germany, and died 21 Apr 1901 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. He married WILHELMINA WISCHMANN Abt. 1842 in Demmin, Pommerania, Germany. She was born Abt. 1820 in Demmin, Pomerania, Germany, and died Abt. 1872 in Demmin, Pomerania, Germany.

Notes for JOACHIM TIETBOHL:

In addition to the notes in the Forward section of this report:

The propensity for the early Tietbohl's to name their male children with the same names of Albert, Augustus, Charles, and Frederick tends to create confusion as well among the individual families.

The 1900 Census is used as a baseline for birth and immigration information on all of Joachim's children.

The 1900 census for PA, Lycoming Co, S. Williamsport, 2nd Ward, ED 74, Sheet 13 shows the only census reference to JOACHIM ever found. Here he is listed with his daughter Rickie (Frederica) and her husband Fred Piel. Joachim is identified with the misspelled name of Tiebhle, Joseph as father-in-law, born May 1815, age 85, widowed, immigrated 1881, reads and writes English but does not speak it, and 18 years in the USA. At that time he was living at 253 West Mountain Ave, So. Williamsport, Pa.

The Gazette & Bulletin of Williamsport, PA of 27 April 1901, p. 3, reported: "Joachim Tietbohl died Wednesday afternoon at the home of his daughter Mrs. Fred Piel, in South Williamsport. He was aged nearly 86 years. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Wildwood cemetery."

The same newspaper of 29 April 1901, p. 5, reported: "The funeral of the late Joachim Tietbohl occurred from the home of his daughter Mrs. Fred Piel, in South Williamsport, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment was made in Wildwood Cemetery."

Joachim's name appears one last time in the records of Wildwood Cemetery where his burial plot is identified with single stone marker.

Notes for WILHELMINA WISCHMANN:

Little is known about Wilhelmina except that passed down in oral tradition. No proof of her birth or death information is available. There is an indication that she had more than seven children as August Tietbohl's obit said he was the youngest of a family of 11.

About Wilhelmina, family tradition states: "She was of the nobility and was reserved for a person of royal blood. In fact her father had promised her to an officer of high rank. When she married Joachim, she was disowned because he was a farmer of common blood."

Generation No. 2

2. CHARLES<sup>2</sup> TIETBOHL (JOACHIM<sup>1</sup>) was born Jan 1845 in Pommern, Germany, and died 1902 in Lycoming County, Alvira, PA. He married FREDERICA SOPHIE HUHR 30 Sep 1873 in Schmarsow, Germany. She was born May 1850 in Demmin, Germany, and died 1922 in Lycoming County, Alvira, PA.

Notes for CHARLES TIETBOHL:

Immigrated to America from Demmin, Germany in 1884 with wife Frederica and two sons Charles, William and one daughter Wilhelmina. Charles bought a farm in Washington Twp, Pennsylvania on land now owned by the Federal Government as part of the Allenwood Federal Correction Facility (Allenwood Prison camp). The place was near Alvira. One child died in Germany before immigration.

Information on Charles and Frederica's vital statistics from LDS ancestral files and the 1900 Census. Charles and family in 1900 are mis indexed as TIETBHOL. The 1900 census shows Charles, wife Ricky and children William and Augustus are living on the farm in Washington Twp. Son Charles F. immigrated with them but is not in this 1900 household. Daughter Wilhelmina is not in the household either.

Ref: Federal Census, 1900, Lycoming County, Washington Twp, Ed 75, Sheet 2, Lines 14 -17.

Letter from Demmin dated 25 January 1960 from Frank Maerz who performed research in the Demmin area gives additional information. No record was found in the Demmin Church records of the Tietbohl family. In the rural district of Schmarsow near Demmin:

In the marriage record of that church we found that Johann Carl Friedrich Tietbohl, farm laborer, age 28 and Friederika Sophia Huhr, age 23 were married on 30 September 1873.

In the Baptismal register we found the names of their children:

Caroline Friederike Wilhelmina Tietbohl born 18 June 1874 and Carl Friedrich Theodor Tietbohl born 23 February 1876. At that time the parents were living in Borgwall near Demmin.

From church member Richard Tietbohl living in Utzedel near Demmin we learned that his great uncle is supposed to have migrated to America. Richard's grandfather was Carl Friedrich Tietbohl, born 18 December 1825. The parents of Carl were Johann Michael Tietbeul and Marie Hagar.

It is possible but not proven that Carl Friedrich and Joachim were brothers and that the prior generation was Johann Michael Tietbeul and Marie Hagar.

Unfortunately all church records before 1846 were destroyed by the war events and no further information is available.

Notes for FREDERICA SOPHIE HUHR:

In the 1900 census "Ricky" for Fredericka is indicated as 50 years old and having immigrated with her husband and son William in 1884.

1900 Federal Census, Pennsylvania, Lycoming County, Washington Twp. Ed 75, Sheet 2.

By 1910 Ricky is a widow living with her youngest unmarried son August and a widow on the farm.

1910 Federal Census, Pennsylvania, Lycoming County, Washington Twp., Ed 73., Sheet 3B.

Tietbohl Family History

By 1920 Ricky is now with son William and family on a farm in rural Washington Twp. She is now age 67, born in Germany and a widow. This time it says immigration in 1885 (sic) should be 1884.

1920 Federal Census, Pennsylvania, Lycoming County, Washington Twp., Ed. 76, Sheet 3B.

There is an LDS record that shows her death as in 1922 with burial in Lycoming County Alvira. LDS V4.19.

3. FREDERICA<sup>2</sup> TIETBOHL (JOACHIM<sup>1</sup>) was born Oct 1850 in Pommern, Germany, and died 1911 in Williamsport, PA. She married FRIDERICK PIEL Abt. 1878 in Pommern, Germany. He was born 19 Sep 1852 in Pomerania, Germany, and died 18 Nov 1938 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Notes for FREDERICA TIETBOHL:

Frederica (Rickie), age 49 in 1900 had been married 22 years and the date of immigration was stated as 1883. Her daughter Ida born in Germany age 21, and Amelia born here age 10 along with Paul Newton age 21, born in PA was with the family.

In 1910 the family was still on Mountain Ave, So. Williamsport. Frederica now identified as Freda R. is age 58, married 31 years and as having had two children. Amelia V. age 20 is with the family. Fredericka died before 1920 (1911) by tree history. In 1920 the Federal census shows Fred Piel as a widower.

The 1900 census for PA, Lycoming Co, S. Williamsport, 2nd Ward, ED 74, Sheet 13 shows the only census reference to JOACHIM ever found. Here he is listed with his daughter Rickie (Frederica) and her husband Fred Piel. He is identified with the misspelled name of Tiebhle, Joseph as Father-in-law, born May 1815, age 85, widowed, immigrated 1881, reads and writes English but does not speak it, and 18 years in the USA. The last address of Joachim was West 253 Mountain Ave, So. Williamsport, PA.

Notes for FRIDERICK PIEL:

Immigrated with wife Frederica to America from Demmin, Germany along with their daughter Ida. In 1900 owned a home at 253 Mountain Ave, S. Williamsport, Pennsylvania. He worked as a laborer in a steam RR shop. In 1900 the census also showed that Paul M. Newton husband of Ida was living with the family. The census data conflicts on immigration date: 1900 Census - 1883, 1910 Census - 1886, 1920 Census - 1884. By 1920, wife Frederica (Rickie) was deceased and Fred Piel was a widower living with his daughter Amelia at 873 Eirie Ave, Williamsport Pa.

Controversy on spelling of her maiden surname, could be MACK.

Anna F must be Anna F Tietbohl. Alice states both her parents were born in Germany. Therefore her mother Frederica Wollin Croll Mack or Mock is from Germany as well as her unknown first name father.

Tietbohl Family History

1935 in New Jersey. She married FRED GIERMAN Abt. 1879 in Germany. He was born Oct 1838 in Germany, and died 23 Apr 1920.

Notes for CAROLINE (COLEEN) TIETBOHL:

The tree history shows the name Lena/Coleen for Joachim's 4th child, however several census in sequence show Caroline/Karoline/Carrie married to Fred Gierman. The Gierman family consisting of Fred, Carrie and oldest son William immigrated in 1880 as shown in the 1900 Federal Census for New Jersey, Mercer County, Trenton, Ed 90 Sheet 4B. In 1900 they had been in the USA for 20 years and had been married for 21 years indicating a marriage in Germany about 1879. The 1900 census also states she had five children and the names match the tree history exactly.

Ref. 1900 Federal Census, New Jersey, Mercer County, Trenton, Ed. 90, Sheet 4 B.

Notes for FRED GIERMAN:

Frederick, Caroline and William Gierman immigrated in 1880. Since they were married 21 years in 1900 the marriage date would be abt 1879 in Germany. The census also states they were in the USA for 20 years.

In 1900 the family lived at 122 Hewitt Street, Trenton, NJ.

Ref: 1900 federal Census, New Jersey, Mercer County, Trenton, 1st Precinct, Ed. 90, Sheet 4B.

In 1910 the family was at 123 Hewitt St and now their daughter Fredia is a widow of Bickerton living with them along with two grandchildren.

Also in 1910 (August and Nellie Tietbohl) and 1920, (Albert and Nellie Tietbohl) live in the same block of Hewitt St, Trenton, with children Helen and Walter in 1920 that show this is the same family.

Notes for AMELIA TIETBOHL:

In Germany her name was Emilie.

Lived at 317 Clark St., So Williamsport and was married to George Reinhart, they immigrated together in 1882. The 1900 Census said they immigrated in 1882 but were married 16 years. That would indicate they married in the US two years after immigration. Amelia is mis indexed as ANNSTLIA. The children Alice through Ida were identified with birth month and year. Note here that the Immigration of Amelia is identified as Oct 1881 in the ships passenger lists.

In 1910 Amelia T. was age 47, a widow and a bookkeeper. In this census the immigration year is given as 1883. The family was now at 1575 Front St., So. Williamsport. Carrie A. is now listed at age 8. There were three borders in the home, one was George Gabriel who Amelia married before 1920 as she was married to him in the 1920 census. Notes for AUGUSTUS WILHELM TIETBOHL:

Augustus with his father Joachim and sister Amelia departed the free port of Hamburg, Germany on September 25, 1881. They sailed on the S.S. Silesia with Ship's Master Capt. A Albers. This ship docked at the Port of New York on October 10, 1881. The full passenger complement was 926, all in steerage. They were listed on the passenger list as "farmers from Prussia," and were passengers numbered 219, 220 and 221. They proceeded to Williamsport, Pennsylvania where Joachim's older son William was already in residence. Here William signed August's Minor's petition for citizenship. In 1900, the federal census shows August married to Sophie Volschow and living at 630 7th Avenue, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. August was an insurance salesman on the 1900 census..

(Ship's Passenger Lists show immigration Oct. 1881 not 1880.; if he had other sisters and brothers not mentioned here, they died in Germany before immigration.)

Notes for SOPHIE M VOELSCHOW:

Some controversy exists about the spelling of her last name. It should be noted; however, that her brother Charles in several Williamsport census' 1900, 1910 and 1920 used the spelling VOELSCHOW which is closer to the original VOLSCHOW with the umlaut o. Voelschow is used here.

In the 1900 Census, Sophia's brother Charles was living with his own family at 628 7th Ave. Williamsport, PA. adjacent to his sister and Augustus Sr. In 1910 the family had relocated to another part of Williamsport and they moved again in 1920. There was also a John Voelschow listed as a border at 628 7th Ave., Williamsport in the 1892 city directory. (Voelschow references follow)
